I have read, understood, and agreed to the following terms and conditions of the workshop:

Intention and responsibilities

The workshop is a training, not a treatment or therapy for participants or other persons suffering from physical or psychological conditions or diseases. Participants take part at their own risk and their own responsibility. FSSE and the organizer accept no liability for any damages to persons or things. Only enrolled participants with a valid password (provided by the organiser) and a (free-of-charge) personal Basic Zoom Account can take part in this online format. It is not allowed to share the meeting ID and password with others.

Copyright and confidentiality

This workshop is part of core-shamanism as carved out by the Foundation for Shamanic Studies. I acknowledge that the workshop materials as well as all the information and practices taught in this format are protected by copyright, even if they are not published yet. I recognize that FSS Europe will be sharing unpublished material with me during that training course. As a consequence, I hereby agree not to publish all or part of that material, including experiential exercises, in any form including written, audio-recorded, audiovisual or electronically recorded form – except with specific advance written permission by authorised representatives of the FSS. This also includes all forms of recordings of the online sessions, which are held using Zoom conferencing software. – Negligence to disregard the above can lead to immediate dismissal from the training, without any reimbursement of the fees. Please note that a breach of contract and/or copyright issues can have legal consequences.

Cancellation policy

The workshop can be cancelled by the organiser without explanation. All paid fees will be refunded but no further compensation will be made. If I cancel my enrolment, I will be refunded 100% up to a month prior to the workshop, 50% up to two weeks, and no refund up to one week prior to the workshop.

Data protection

I agree to a processing of my personal data – such as name, address, telephone number, email address, workshop dates – by the workshop organiser/leader for organisational and tax purposes. I can revoke my agreement any time by sending an email or letter to the organiser/workshop leader.

I have taken notice of all the details in the information sheet to the workshop.

Counteraction to any of the above mentioned terms and conditions equals violation of contract, with full legal consequences.
